

2016 INSTITUTE for ECUMENICAL LEADERSHIP (INTRODUCTORY LEVEL)

MAY 22-26

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE
at CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Since 1981, the Catholic Association of Diocesan Ecumenical and Interreligious Officers and the Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs have sponsored three-year cycle of leadership training opportunities, beginning with this Introductory Institute for Ecumenical Leadership. Aware of the rapidly changing dimensions of ecumenical work, Ecumenical Officers and others involved in the work of Christian unity need ongoing training to include the latest and most significant developments affecting their work.

CADEIO and the BCEIA are offering the introductory level Institute for Ecumenical Leadership every year. This year join us from Sunday evening, May 22 through noon Thursday, May 26. It will be held at Theologica College next door to Catholic University and the USCCB.

The Institute will be led by Monsignor John Radano, former staff member of the Pontifical Council for Christian Unity, and former chair of the Religious Studies Department at Seton Hall University.

The faculty includes Father John Crossin, OSFS, who currently serves as the director of Director of the Secretariat for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, USCCB, Fr. Ron Rober-son and Dr. Michael Root.

The Institute is open to new ecumenical and interreligious officers, commission members, diocesan leaders, members of religious orders, seminarians, theology students and inter-ested laity. The cost per participant will not exceed $600 for those from dioceses which are current with their CADEIO dues.

For further information, or to send your application accom-panied by a $100 deposit (must be submitted by May 1, 2016, please), contact:
