

2020 INSTITUTE for INTERRELIGIOUS LEADERSHIP

Wednesday, JULY 8 —
Tuesday, JULY 14

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE
at CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

We are here to help you be effective and up-to-date in your work and dialogue with people of other faiths.

Since 1981 CADEIO and the Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs have co-sponsored training and professional development institutes for ecumenical and interreligious officers and others serving the Catholic community in this important area of relationships with people of other faiths—diocesan commission members, diocesan education and outreach personnel, members of religious communities that have ecumenical/interreligious apostolates, also seminarians.

This year our Interreligious Institute will survey key Church documents, events, theological and pastoral principles, and current issues in the field. Dialogue topics arising from the current state of interreligious conversations and practical pastoral questions will shape the agenda based on the Conference, hopefully adding also opportunities to visit Islamic, Buddhist and Hindu houses of worship. The Institute will be guided by Dr. John Borelli and a team of educators and directors of Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs.

The Institute will begin with dinner on Wednesday evening, July 8, and conclude midday on Tuesday, July 14. It will be held at Theological College at Catholic University in Washington, DC. The fee for the Institute, $999 (for those from dioceses which are current with their CADEIO dues), will include registration, room, board, materials, and other expenses. It will not include transportation costs. For further information, or to send your application accompanied by a $100 deposit no later than June 1, 2020 to hold a room:
