INSTITUTE for ECUMENICAL LEADERSHIP

Since 1981 CADEIO and the Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs have co-sponsored training and professional development institutes for ecumenical and interreligious officers and others serving the Catholic community in this increasingly important area of concern - diocesan commission members, diocesan education personnel, members of religious communities that have ecumenical/interreligious apostolates, also seminarians.

This year, as a fruit of our limitations in the pandemic, we have become accustomed to meeting online and dialogueing in a different context. The result is that we can attend the Institute without the cost of travel and room/board. Our only expenses will be stipends which we will give to our many speakers. Our speakers can be much more varied from many places because their commitment will only need be the time we are with them online. Our flexible schedule will be only part of the day and not require a weekend, so busy priests, deacons, and Church personnel will not need to put responsibilities on hold. They will be recorded and streamed to registered participants so that you can catch up on today's presentations and discussions in time for tomorrow's.

Tuesday 6 July -
Friday 9 July, 1-4:30pm
Monday 12 July -
Friday 16 July, 1-4:30pm

Presentations and
Discussions will be offered
Live-Online (and recorded)

The Institute will begin on Tuesday, July 6 and conclude on Friday, July 16. Daily sessions will run from 1- 4:30pm. The fee for the Institute is $250. Space is limited to 21 persons and persons will be selected based on role and geographic location. For further information, or to send your completed application form accompanied by a $100 deposit (must be made by July 2, 2021) contact:
